Spotlight on UW–Madison Resources

What is the DDEEA?
The Division of Diversity, Equity, and Educational Achievement is a division of UW–Madison that leads, facilitates, and consults campus projects that aim to create an "excellent learning and work environment for all students, faculty, staff, alumni and partners." The DDEEA consists of several sub-units including ACTS, CeO, LCICE, PEOPLE, First Wave Scholars, and more. Under direction of the Deputy Vice Chancellor for Diversity and Inclusion & Chief Diversity Officer, the DDEEA is a directing body of essential resources and support for students, faculty, and staff of diverse backgrounds.
