

SUMMER 2021: ITALIAN COURSES AT UW-MADISON

Why enroll in Italian courses? Because you are ready to...

- ⇒ Enrich your knowledge of Italian literature, language, history, and culture.
- ⇒ Get closer to completing a Major in Italian or Certificate in Italian.
- ⇒ Get closer to completion of your double major or European Certificate.
- ⇒ Improve your speaking, reading, listening, and writing skills.
- ⇒ Satisfy requirements for study abroad options.
- ⇒ For a complete list, visit <https://frit.wisc.edu/category/italian-courses/>

ITALIAN 102, Second Semester Italian. This 4-credit course covers chapter 6 through chapter 11 of Piazza!. It is designed for students who have successfully completed Italian 101 or 1 year of Italian at a high school level. The goal of this course is to give you the linguistic and cultural tools to: review previously learned grammatical structures and familiarize yourself with and practice more complex structures; further develop basic Italian vocabulary; expand your abilities to write and talk about yourself in Italian; read about and investigate aspects of Italian culture, specifically daily life in Italy, Please note: you will use the same textbook for Italian 101 and 102!

May 24-June 20, MTWTH 1:10-2:25pm. Contact Dr. Eadie for further information: eadie@wisc.edu

Italian 201 (Italian 101 and 102 in one semester). Beginner Intensive. This 4-credit course covers chapters 1 through part of chapter 11 of Piazza!. Exciting, fast-paced course that will allow you to cover the equivalent of the first two college semesters of Italian. The equivalent of two university-level semesters or four high school years of Spanish, Portuguese, French, Latin or Romanian is required for participation in this course. You will quickly learn to put into action Italian grammatical structures that you have already seen before in another romance language and to significantly develop a vocabulary base and pronunciation skills appropriate for a first-year student of Italian.

June 14-August 8, MTWTH 1:10-2:25pm. Contact Dr. Eadie for further information: eadie@wisc.edu

Italian 203, Third semester Italian. This 4-credit course covers the entirety of the textbook Domani 2 and three modules from Domani 3. It is designed for students who have successfully completed Italian 102. The goal of this course is to give you the linguistic and cultural tools to: review, develop, and refine the grammatical structures; expand your Italian vocabulary; watch, read, and listen to authentic Italian; further develop your writing skills; research aspects of Italian culture that interest you.

May 24-June 20, MTWTH 1:10-2:25pm. Contact Dr. Eadie for further information: eadie@wisc.edu

Literature in Translation/Medieval/Religious 253, Of Demons and Angels: DANTE'S DIVINE COMEDY in translation. This 3-credit course conducted in English. Through readings, videos and original images, we explore the most significant episodes from one of the greatest world literary classics, Dante's Divine Comedy. From Hell, through Purgatory to Paradise, we travel together with Dante in a universal tale of the journey of the human soul.

May 24-July 18, MW 1:00-2:15pm. Contact Prof. Todorovic for further information: jtodorovic@wisc.edu