

A BROWN BAG CONVERSATION WITH PROFESSOR MICHELLE BUMATAY

Thursday April 18, 2024
Van Hise 711
12:00 P.M.

After brief remarks by Prof. Bumatay, the floor will be opened to questions.

Bring your lunch and come discuss research, the job market, event planning, publishing, and more.

The event will be in English and is destined for the graduate students

Prof. Bumatay will also be holding office hours in 618 Van Hise from 1:30 P.M. to 2:30 P.M. on Thursday April 18th. Drop ins welcome.

Michelle Bumatay, PhD is an Assistant Professor of French at Florida State University specializing in African Francophone literature and visual culture. Her current book project, Black Bandes Dessinées, explores the diversity of comics in French by Black artists and authors. She is also the organizer of the Winthrop-King Institute's Global Africas series.

These events are sponsored and supported by the Department of French & Italian, the Anonymous Fund, The Center for Interdisciplinary French Studies, the Department of African Cultural Studies, and University of Wisconsin Libraries.

Contact: Peter Russella (russella@wisc.edu)

