

FRENCH 205 SUMMER 2026

Intensive Intermediate French Online

Do you enjoy talking about music, films, & social issues? Do you want to improve how you do that in French? Do you hope to study abroad or visit a French-speaking country? If you already have two semesters of background in French (FR 102 or 105), enroll & accelerate your French progress during this 8-week online course!

Class meetings June 15th - Aug 7th 2026

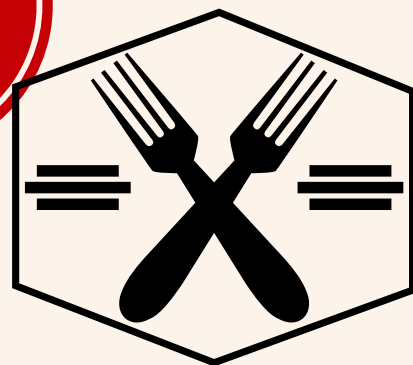

M-W-F 10:00-12:15 Central time on Zoom

1

Gearing Up to Communicate
about Social Issues

2

Contemporary Food Cultures

3

Immigration in the Francophone World

4

Linguistic Identity Today

No written exams

French 205 will expand your speaking, listening, viewing, reading, & writing skills as you engage with authentic texts from the French-speaking world. These include short & feature-length films, websites, articles, comic books, & other media. You will apply your knowledge in project-based learning, such as creating an original video in French, & engaging in debates on course themes. One-on-one conversation sessions with the instructors every two weeks will keep you on track to meet your goals and personalize your learning!

affordable textbook

Questions? Contact:

Dr. Heather Allen, hwallen@wisc.edu

Undergraduate Program Manager:

Mandi Schoville, maschoville@wisc.edu

