

BLACK BANDES DESSINÉES: PAPA MFUMU'ETO'S MAKING WAVES, TAKING NAMES, AND THROWING STONES

A PUBLIC LECTURE BY MICHELLE BUMATAY, PHD

Wednesday April 17, 2024
Memorial Library 126
4:30 P.M.

Preceded at 4:00 P.M. by a presentation of the francophone comics exhibit in Memorial Library's main lobby.

The events are in English, free, and open to the public

Michelle Bumatay, PhD is an Assistant Professor of French at Florida State University specializing in African Francophone literature and visual culture. Her current book project, Black Bandes Dessinées, explores the diversity of comics in French by Black artists and authors.

This lecture is sponsored and supported by the Department of French & Italian, the Anonymous Fund, The Center for Interdisciplinary French Studies, the Department of African Cultural Studies, and University of Wisconsin Libraries.

Contact: Peter Russella (russella@wisc.edu)

